

SWINGUEZ MOUSTACHES

Swinguez Moustaches project is a jazz band influenced by the highest standards of the 1920s and early 1940s. Crazy about swing, the group regularly performs at dance evenings in Paris and in the provinces. Swinguez Moustaches is composed by seven musicians, who are grouped around the same goals: sharing their passion for swing, creating unique moments with the audience, and most important: making them dancing!

The group, formed in the Paris' streets in 2013, currently has seven musicians. Having Lindy hop and Charleston dance styles as basic references, SWIMS sometimes also draws on a variety of styles, ranging from eastern music to funk and Latin influences. In 2014, SWIMS records its first album «L'homme descend du SWINGE», a mix of covers and swing compositions. Since then, the group, highly active on the Parisian scene, has regularly co-organized balls in partnership with the Ekza Swing dancers' association. The group organises its repertoire according to dancers' codes and needs (tempo, pieces duration, dance style, etc.). Whether there are dancers or not, the audience is always won over by the SWIMS formula: energy, good mood, improvisation and SWING!

The Parisian septet gets red-hot to liven up your evenings and swing balls, as well as your private events (weddings, cocktails, gala evenings, receptions, baptisms, mushroom fairs and other festive moments). Its repertoire carefully arranged suits any occasion: from the most festive to the cosiest, from an entertainment duo till night septet....

Press publication

«Going out in Paris : we tried a swing ball»
(«Sortir à Paris : on a testé un bal swing»)
Le Parisien, 15-06-2019, Pauline Conradsson

«Closing our eyes, we felt like in a Harlem Club, during 1930's. Pleasurable and energizing. And we even feel like we can dance (a bit) better.»

«Es Lebe der Swing»
Passauer Neue Presse, 19-07-2019

«Die französische Swing- und Jazz Band «Swinguez Moustaches» gab ein Livekonzert im Andorfer Weißbierkeller, ermöglicht und organisiert vom Rock'n Roll & Boogie Woogie Club Albatros zusammen mit den Wirtsleuten. In uriger Atmosphäre heizte die siebenköpfige Band mit Musik aus den 20er- und 30er-Jahren ordentlich ein. Üblicherweise durchstreifen die Swinguez Moustaches die Straßen und Bars von Paris. Zur Freude der Passauer Swing- und Boogie-Woogie-Liebhaber erweiterte die Band vor kurzem ihr Territorium und machte auf ihrer Deutschlandtour einen kleinen Zwischenstopp in der Dreiflüsstadt. In jeweils drei Sets spielte die Band live, herzerfrischend-beschwingt und brachte das Publikum zum Tanzen. Die Spielpausen wurden gefüllt mit Tanzmusik aus den 50er Jahren, sodass auch die reiner Boogie-Woogie-Tänzer auf ihre Kosten kamen.»
